Project Steno Welcomes Cuyahoga Community College as a Partner Program

The captioning and court reporting program at Cuyahoga becomes the first Project Steno Partner Program in the state of Ohio

Worcester, MA – Project Steno announced today that Parma, Ohio-based Cuyahoga Community College has become the fifth institution to become a Partner Program.

“We’re proud to welcome Cuyahoga Community College as a Partner Program,” said Project Steno Executive Director Nancy Varallo. “As the network of Partner Programs has expanded, so too has the financial support from all corners of the court reporting community. We’re likewise seeing new levels of interest from an entirely new cohort of court reporting students. We’re pleased with Project Steno’s rapid progress, and having Cuyahoga join our ranks is a significant step.”

Each Partner Program must agree to performance metrics set forth by Project Steno, the purpose of which is to graduate students within 24 months of enrollment. To achieve that goal, a Partner Program must:

- Adhere to a curriculum designed to graduate students in two years;
- Incorporate a speed-building and online practice regimen that makes use of Realtime Coach;
- Permit regular monitoring of Project Steno students by means of built-in Realtime Coach analytics; and
- Confirm student progress to Project Steno on a regular basis, to assure that students are achieving performance milestones and not falling behind.

About Project Steno

Founded in 2017, Project Steno is an independent, non-affiliated organization that relies entirely on financial support from the court reporting community. Its goals are to:

- Promote the stenographic reporting profession and recruit promising students;
- Partner with stenographic reporting schools and programs to graduate students in two years; and
- Defray education costs by awarding tuition assistance to qualifying students in schools and programs across the country.

Project Steno has applied for 501(c)3 status as a charitable organization. It operates entirely on a not-for-profit basis. In January 2018 Project Steno launched its program of tuition assistance and placed its first students in court reporting school. With the manifest enthusiasm of court reporters everywhere, Project Steno will continue to raise funds to promote widespread awareness of our unique profession and create a robust pipeline of students into court reporting schools and graduates into the field. We invite stenographic reporting schools and programs to apply to our Partner Program.

*Project Steno is the trade name of Project to Advance Stenographic Reporting, Inc. Project Steno's purpose is to provide tuition assistance to select students who wish to learn stenographic reporting. Not all applicants will be received into the Project Steno tuition assistance program.
